“ My heartfelt sympathies for Jerry's children and grandchildren. My memories of Jerry (my cousin) are of a man who loved family and friends. It broke his heart when Gail passed and then his parents and siblings. It was important to him to be present when aunts and uncles passed. Traveling many miles to attend their funerals. As a young girl I loved all the Baumer boys and always looked forward to their visits. I remember how much Jerry loved my mother his Aunt Bucky and how he grieved her death. I know it was hard for him to be the only person left in his family. I'm glad he has been reunited in death with all the people he had loved and lost. RIP Jerry, love your cousin Gail
