“ I will miss Pauline. I always enjoyed visiting with her at the reunions. I loved her sense of timing and humor. It never failed that in the middle of a conversation, she would drop a remark, that had everyone stop and look at her. She had that ornery glint in her eye, as she tried to look innocent on what she just said. Then she would look away sheepishly, and grin. I loved watching that interaction, along with when her and Pearl's child exploits were brought up. Pauline always squirmed in her seat, and pointed at Pearl; since Pearl was older. Loved her and will miss that smile. With sincere love and affection, Laura Nichols
