“ I've only known Alpha a little under two years. In that time i've learned a few of her personality trades. She was always kind with a smile on her face when Lee and I came." Are you hungry there's food over their!!" wouldn't be the first thing she said. It was coming in the first 20 minutes. Giving to others seemed to bring her joy. She hated wasting. But for me when she got really tickled. She smile a laugh like my mother. For me that was such a blessing because both my parents have been gone for 16 years. When she smiled like that she didn't know it. But I couldn't have said no to any request she asked of me. What I did try to let her know was that she was a special lady. She will be missed.
