“ Aunt Barbara's kindness and acceptance I shall always remember with love, however, according to her obituary, as Mark Twain once said, "The reports of my death are greatly exaggerated." I just celebrated my 69th birthday and have recently returned to Oklahoma after living in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and in State of Florida after 22 years recently, where I owned and managed many properties in both Northern and Southern Florida. I was was probably both an assumption and error made by my "brother" John, who was not mentioned in the obituary. Seems sensible, since he like to steal inherited property from his immediate family, and in this case, would like to editorially steal my very life. Let's let John maintain his assumption? Just to set the record straight on this, Sunday, October 27, 2024. Regards! Killer of the Flower Moon!
