“ I spent many afternoons and weekends during my grade school and middle school years playing with my neighborhood friends. Bart was one of those friends. I will never forget when we were playing with jumping jack fireworks. I threw one up in the air and it flew right into Bart's armpit. It burnt a hole through his shirt and he almost lost it trying to get it out from under his arm. We both laughed hysterically afterwards. I enjoyed running around the neighborhood with him back then. He was always my friend.

“ I had Bart as a student in fourth grade while Edith had our Russ, and our classrooms were next door. I think Bart and Russ consulted each other about their Moms. I loved Bart even though he was a bit ornery--but a good ornery. Sweet spirited.

“ My husband coached Bart in baseball when he was young. I always had a soft spot for him. As he got older he always visited with me and he always remembered me. That shows character in a person. His son Blaine played baseball with my grandson and I still find myself calling him Bart. He will be missed. My prayers go out to his family.
