“ I loved my Mom very much, she was a supportive mother and friend. I have so many wonderful and fun memories from growing up to her traveling with us on vacations. She was always there when I needed her. Her pain and suffering from the past few years is finally over and she is ready to dance a 'jig' at the gates of heaven. I don't cry tears of sadness but tears of joy that she is celebrating her life now with her Heavenly Father. I will miss her phone calls and talks we shared. Her loving support and her sense of humor. I know that she is now my guardian angel and will watch over me until we can be together again. Love you Mom and May Peace be with you! Your Loving daughter. Linda
