

Brandon Douglas Nixon

March 20, 1976 - August 21, 2021

Brandon Douglas Nixon was born on the first day of spring, March 20, 1976 in Ft. Smith, Arkansas to Larry & Cheryl (Robertson) Nixon. He passed from this life on August 21, 2021 at the age of 45.

Brandon loved well. He especially loved his wife and best friend, Deborah, whom he met and married 22 years ago in Utah before returning to Oklahoma to raise their family. Their children were the joy of his heart. He loved telling stories, but his kids' most recent escapades were his favorite.

As the first born of the family, Brandon was always faithful in keeping his siblings connected. He was his brother's best man and a kindred spirit to his sister. He was active in his church outreach and always enjoyed meeting new people and helping anyone he could. Brandon had a special gift for engaging others with his quick wit and ready humor- a beautiful bright spot he has left on our hearts.

From his youth up, he enjoyed playing video games with friends and family, often quoting characters and movie lines with dramatic flair. The highlight of his week was playing Dungeons and Dragons with his kids, which they nicknamed "DnD" in the night. He also enjoyed being outdoors, with the exception of the "oppressive Oklahoma humidity," and spent much of his youth "on the hill" at Grandmama & Papa's house. As an adult he trained under his dad and loved working in the gas fields. Most recently he worked as a forklift operator. His favorite part of any job was the people he met and the friends he made.

Brandon had a dynamic mind-both logical and creative, appreciating both science and science fiction. He was a voracious reader who loved learning, and held a master's degree in industrial/organizational psychology. He had an arsenal of humor on standby, especially for serious situations. It was Brandon's mission and satisfaction to lighten the mood and lift the spirit. Remembering him lifts our spirit even now, and we thank God for him. He brought so much love, humor, and brilliant color into our lives. We miss him every day, but we know this legacy lives on in his children, and remains evident to all who love him

Brandon is survived by the love of his life, his wife of 22 years, Deborah Nixon of the home; his children, Jacob, Leah, Eliza, James, Kylie & Rebekah of the home; his parents, Larry & Cheryl Nixon of Stigler ; his brother & sister-in-law, Chris & Jaclyn Nixon of Stigler; his sister& brother-in-law, Tera & Travis Palmer of McCurtain; his aunts & uncles, Loyd Edward & Arlene Nixon of McCurtain, Cleta & Richard Smedley of Broken Arrow, Pam Petree of Justin, Texas, Laura & Ronnie Dill of McCurtain, John Anderson of Stigler; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Brandon was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Loyd and Douglass Nixon of McCurtain; maternal grandparents, O.D. Robertson of Oklahoma City and Bobbie McCullar of McCurtain; Aunt Susan and Uncle Terry Randolph of Quinton, his father-in-law, John Dredge, of Orem, Utah; his cousin & friend, Terric Hensley of McCurtain.

President Chris Forsbloom, Mr. Mike Hurst & Reverend Travis Palmer will be officiating. Pallbearers include Chris Nixon, John Anderson, Robert Dredge, Ammon Pickett, Jeff Mooney, Jason Clark.

Burial will follow in Stigler Cemetery under the direction of King & Shearwood Funeral Home of Stigler.

“ Brandon was the best story teller I ever met, with an ability for turning even the most mundane occurrence into a riveting, hilarious, and forever memorable experience. It's been over 10 years since we last spoke, but I will still often be reminded of some little adventure we had, or story he told, and find myself smiling. What really made him special though, was how genuinely kind and full of love he was - it shined through every story he told and truly inspired me to be a better person. I just feel so incredibly lucky I was able to call him a friend for even a brief time, and I'm completely heartbroken his story here on Earth has ended. I offer my deepest condolences to the family.

“ Brandon was one of my best friends. We hit it off immediately and became good friends after a short while. These past couple montha we've talked almost every day about work, video games, and whatever else. He sure knew how to carry himself and was an impressive dad and friend. He's missed.

“ My name is Christopher Scholle and I just want to send my love and support to the Nixon family. I was a missionary that serve back in 2008-2010 and I had a chance to get to know Brandon and we went out a lot on exchanges and rode in his Mitsubishi truck and it was some amazing times. He was one of a kind man that cares and show his love by serving. I truest would miss him but I know he is always there watching over his family and friends. I truly going to miss you Brandon but God be with you till we meet again.
