“ I had no idea Chuck had passed. I am so sorry...to his family, friends, everyone that loved & cared for him. Chuck was such a special person. His love for God amazed me. I am truly sorry for his kids. You all were the light in his life, & he never failed to tell whoever he met just how special you all were. I will be praying for your family.

“ I've got so many, but what I'm going to remember is his laugh, hugs, concern for others, his big heart, and sharing his kids with me. I'll never forget I brought Zech home with me one night, and he kept the 3 girls. I called to tell him Zech forgot his "pink silky" and I couldn't understand what he was saying. He informed me Shae was kicking him in the shins. I don't think we ever swapt those 2 again. He was my praying friend, and we spent many a time on the phone talking about our beliefs (he was alway right he thought). One thing I'm sure he believed Jesus and he's with him now. Gonna miss my friend. Prayers and hugs to the family.
