“ Cyndi and I met when my daughter and I moved here in 1995 from Tennessee. We both worked at the Westside restaurant. We became good friends and explored our part of Oklahoma with the kids. She always made everything an adventure. We had alot of fun! We grew apart but I seen her often at the lake. I always admired her determination. She loved her kids so much! Something she told me once was "I don't think about my problems when I'm concentrating on helping other people with their problems " That always stuck with me. We're gonna miss you Cindy but we will never forget you!! ❤️
