“ I can't even express how I feel loosing Danna..(second mom). I'm so glad these last few years, I was able to tell her I loved her and what she meant to me as we recalled the years I lived next door to her as a child and shared a very special friendship with my "bestfriend" growing up, Pat, her daughter. She knew I thought if her as my second mom and I thoroughly enjoyed our conversations the last few years. I miss her already.💔💔💔

“ My heart hurts for this big loving family. I haven't seen Danna since I was a kid but remember her as a sweet funny and kind mom to my friends. I cherish the friendship I still have with many and pray you all know she has made it home.

“ Danna was a wonderful person who love her family and always wished she could see them more. I pray for the family and for Danna who was not only Beautiful inside but outside. If you did not get to see her all the time you sure missed out. Her wonderful care giver was her daughter Caren and her husband Warren and their sons. They mowed did what ever it took in her later years to help her out. Her dog Max was her Love and I know Caren will take good care of him for the Love of her Mom.
