“ I met Dawn many years ago at church...I always loved her..and had lost track of her for several years..but one day about a year ago I the privilege of visiting with her in her home..we had a great visit and prayer for her and Dennis...She was even able to go to church with me one Wednesday night...said she really enjoyed hearing the Word of God.

We talked on the phone several times after that she was a good person with a beautiful soul...hard to believe she's gone at such a young age..my heart is saddened for her family...I do know she loved the Lord and loved hearing the Word of God!
She will be missed..love you Dawn Hall!

“ I went to school with her at the Stigler VoTech. We had so much fun together! We cooked at each other's homes to get ready for fundraising lunches, and shopped together a lot. She even taught me her secrets for chicken and dumplings. She was a wonderful person and will be missed so much. My sincerest condolences to all of her family!
