

DEE SISAVATH

June 15, 1948 - October 31, 2025

Dee Sisavath, age 77, passed away peacefully on October 31, 2025, at 6:05 a.m. Dee was born in Sainyabuli, Pak Lay, Laos, where he spent his early years surrounded by family and community. Seeking a better life and future for his loved ones, he moved his family to Thailand before beginning a new chapter in the United States.

Throughout his life, Dee built a legacy of hard work, love, and devotion. He and his beloved wife, Phong Vilaiphone, shared many years together, raising their family and guiding them through life's challenges and triumphs. Phong preceded him in death in 2021 due to complications from COVID-19. Dee carried her memory with him every day, and their bond remained unbroken until his passing.

Dee's journey took him and his family across many states, including Illinois, Wisconsin, Georgia, and California, before he settled in Stigler, Oklahoma, where he spent the final two years of his life. He was a devoted father, grandfather, and great-grandfather whose kindness, strength, and wisdom inspired all who knew him.

He leaves behind four children, fifteen grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren who will forever cherish his memory, his teachings, and the love he shared so freely. Dee's life was a testament to resilience, faith, and the enduring power of family.
