“ I met Gary, Laura and Preston when I was a little girl, I was only a few months older than Preston and grew very close very fast. losing Preston was the hardest thing I'd ever faced. I'll never forget this family. I've been looking for Gary and Laura for years. so sad that I found them to late. RIP Gary.

“ Tony had the job of feeding the pigs when we were kids. The pig pen was across the road from our house. Tony never liked to be by himself so he would bribe me into going with him by getting Daddy's cigarette butts from his ashtray and when we got to the pig pen we would smoke those cigarette butts.

“ My brother 'Tony' as a child was as mean as sin. He loved to trick us or tell us something that wasn't true. One day Ruth, Tony and I were in the 'Rock House' playing and Tony laid down on the floor and pretended to be asleep. Ruth and I would try to talk to him and he would just lay there with his eyes closed until finally we decided to just go back to the house and leave him there. When we got into the house Mama asked where Tony was and we told her about the trick he was playing on us by just laying there and pretending to be asleep so we just came back to the house. Mama ran down to the 'Rock House' and managed to get him awake and back to the house. Tony had Rheumatic Fever as a small child and it had damaged his heart so he would have spells of passing out. Later he was diagnosed with a heart murmur.
