

Gladys P. Lockwood

February 19, 1931 - November 2, 2013

Gladys Pauline (Bush) Lockwood, 82, of Hoyt passed way Saturday, November 2, 2013 at her home. One of eight children, she was born at Brooken, on February 19, 1931 to Issac Dewit Bush and Holly Octavia (Kemp) Bush.

She married Lonnie Newton Lockwood on June 29, 1950.

She loved the outdoors and was often found out in the woods with her sons hunting and fishing. She was an avid gardener who made sure the whole family was kept in fresh vegetables. No holiday was complete without a visit to Granny's for some wonderful home cooking and her awesome cream pies.

Gladys is survived by her three sons, Ronnie Lockwood and wife Jean of Hoyt, Donnie Lockwood and wife Vera of Hoyt, CJ Lockwood and wife Wanda of Hoyt; three daughters, Bonnie Pearson and husband Don of Hoyt, Johnnie Anderson and husband Ron of Lindsborg, Kansas, and Vonda Lockwood of Lowell, Arkansas; eleven grandchildren; seventeen great grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Dee & Holly Bush; her husband, Lonnie Lockwood; a grandson, Daniel Pearson; a great grandson, Matthew Perry; seven brothers and sisters.

Funeral services will be held 10:00 A.M. Monday, November 4, 2013 at Faith Community Church with Reverend David Bigger officiating. Pallbearers include Ron Anderson, Michael Hendrix, Bryon Perry, Shawn Lovell.

Burial will immediately follow at Brooken Cemetery under the direction of King & Shearwood Funeral Home of Stigler.
