

Golda Clara (Kash) Grissom

May 13, 1940 - October 22, 2018

Golda Clara (Kash) Grissom was born on May 13, 1940 to Clarence and Golda Kash in Younger Bend, Oklahoma. She left this world to spend eternity in the arms of a loving God on October 22, 2018. She lived 78 years, 5 months, and 9 days and lives still in the heart of all those whose lives she touched.

She is preceded in death by her son, Ronnie Lewis Miller II and her daughter, Darlene Renee Miller.

She is survived by her loving husband of the home, Thomas Abbott Grissom; her sons, Michael Clarence Miller and his wife Judy of Virginia, Steven Lane Miller and his wife, Patty of Oklahoma, Thomas Gregory Grissom of Texas, David Allen Grissom and his wife Olof of Texas, Douglas Blythe Grissom and his wife Sharon of Texas, Bradley Paul Grissom and wife Sherry of Texas; her daughter, Sheila Renee Schmotzer and her husband Dan of South Carolina; 21 grandkids; 21 great grandkids; 3 sisters; many nieces, nephews, and countless friends around the world.

Golda lived the most amazing and storied life. Known by her family and friends as “Sister,” she started her education at 4 years old in a one room school house in Younger Bend and graduated from High School in McFarland, California where she and her sister led their team to a State Basketball Championship. After graduation, she married the Reverend Ronnie Lewis Miller and started a family in Shafer, California. They settled in Lawton, Oklahoma in 1966 where she raised 4 children as a pastor’s wife and Sunday School Teacher. She touched countless lives as she faithfully ministered to everyone she met. She was a selfless and humble woman who always sought to please the Lord by serving others. She traveled the United States from coast to coast and crossed the world to minister to others.. She has led Bible Studies and missions in Mexico City and Puerto Rico, smuggled Bibles into Russia and Poland, been baptized in the river Jordon, and stood as a witness to her faith in the streets of London, Greece, Italy, Scotland, Canada, Iceland, and Korea. Wherever she went, she stood ready and eager to share her testimony with a soft and gentle spirit. She wanted, more than anything, for others to know Jesus Christ as she knew Him; her best and closest friend.

She met the love of her life in Thomas Abbott Grissom and they were married in 1996. They settled back in Younger Bend where her story began. She had two great loves in her life. Her first love was always Jesus Christ. Her love for Jesus shaped everything she did. Her second great love was her family. For her, family extended far beyond her husband, children, and siblings. Her family included every man, woman, and child that God ever placed in her path, from preschoolers she had read Bible stories to 50 years ago, to missionaries and orphans she supported with money and prayers., but never had met. For the last 20 years, as she made her home in Younger Bend, she still impacted the world through her faithful support of Voice of the Martyrs and Samaritan's Purse. Although we grieve our great loss, we ask that you would celebrate with us and in lieu of flowers you would continue her good work with a contribution to Samaritan's Purse.

Graveside Services will be 11:00 A.M. Saturday, October 27, 2018 in Coleman Cemetery in Porum with Steven L. Miller officiating. Eulogist: Michael C. Miller II. Pallbearers include Nathaniel D. Miller, Zachariah L. Miller, Jeremiah B. Miller, Falur Grissom, Jack B. Miller, Grayson Grissom, Thor Grissom.

“ *To the Family,
When I was a little girl, we went to 9th & Lee Church of God. I remember her as Sister Miller. I was one of those little kids she read Bible stories to 50 years ago. She was a good and kind woman. We were grateful to have known her. She made a difference in this world. So very sorry for your loss. God bless you.*
