“ James my most treasured memory with you was at your Grandma and Grandpas house. We all met there on Sundays for dinner. You were in your first manual wheel chair and I hooked my labrador, Goldie's leash to your chair and we ran all over the yard with her pulling you in your chair. It was so much fun until we ran you into a truck bumper. You told me that day it made you want to go to Alaska and ride in a sleigh with a team of dogs pulling you through the snow. We already miss you. Love and hugs. Go run high on that mountain. You earned those wings.
