

James "Bobby" Taylor

October 6, 1968 - March 16, 2014

OBITUARY FOR MR. JAMES "BOBBY" TAYLOR:

Mr. James "Bobby" Taylor, 45, of Porum died Sunday, March 16, 2014 at a Tulsa hospital. He was born on October 6, 1968 in Stroud to Tommy Taylor and Virginia Cross. He grew up in Clearfield, Utah where he received his education. After graduation he enjoyed pursuing many different trades and eventually learning to be a trim carpenter for C & S Specialties. He then married Stormie Muskrat on April 27, 2002 in Stigler and they made their home together in Porum. He will always be remembered as being very adventurous, living life on the edge, loving technology, loving to hunt, listening to music, and most of all being with his family.

He is survived by his wife, Stormie Taylor of the home; his son, Nickolaus Taylor of the home; his daughter, Alexandria Taylor of the home; his grandmother, Estella Taylor of Oklahoma City; his mother, Virginia Sampey of Bagdad, Kentucky; three sisters, Tonja Dripps of Carson City, Nevada, Kelli Hopkins of Depew, Paula Newton of Oklahoma City; two brothers, Jeff Taylor of Bristow, David Taylor, of Roy, Utah; two sister-in-laws, Shawna Shelby of Moore, Shannon Franklin of Moore.

He is preceded in death by his father, Tommy Taylor; his grandfather, Plez Taylor; his grandmother, Reba Cross.

Funeral Services will be held 2:00 P.M., Wednesday, March 19, 2014 at R.E. Memorial Chapel with Glen Spears officiating. Pallbearers include Tommy Shelby, Eric Franklin, Coby Franklin, Micah Starr, Shawn Adams, and Tim

Smith.

Burial will immediately follow under the direction of King and Shearwood
Funeral Home of Stigler.
