“ I first met Janice when I was five years old. We lived on the same block in the neighborhood of 39th and Highland in Kansas City Missouri. I didn't really know her that well back then but that changed in 1986 when we became sister - in -laws. She and Bob would often come by and I always enjoyed their company. However, it wasn't until Bob past away that we really became close friends and depended on each other while we shared a home. We had a lot in common. We had fun just talking to each other because she had a good sense of humor and we would have Jammie days and watch our favorite old movies and often in our conversations we would use dialogues from them and crack up laughing because she was so whitty and they just seemed to fit. I loved to go fishing with her and we caught a lot of fish and enjoyed beautiful sunrises and sunsets and peaceful days on the lake. She encouraged me, motivated me, inspired me, advised me and most of all stood by me during some of my most troubling times. I truly believe she was put on this earth to help me along the way . I never had to ask. She would say I'm on my way and she would be. I could go on and on about her and what kind of person she was but anyone that knew her already knows that. I have all the memories of time we shared together in my heart and that's where it will stay because she captured my heart with her friendship. I love and miss her and always will until we meet again. - Linda
