“ Jerry was my daddy, I have a lot of fond memories of him , he loved to draw and would draw on anything he could find, cars walls, knapkins, I remember him painting a jungle book scene on the bedroom wall, the landlord thought it was amazing and gave him back the security deposit when we moved. He drew smurfs on the trunk and flames down the sides of mom's car, boy was she mad. In his younger days he would take us kids fishing, motorcycle riding, and horseback riding, he even taught us how to shoot a gun , on Sunday after church daddy and some of the other men from church would go ride dirt bikes, one time he was barreling up the side of a hill and on the other side was a pond with a tree in it ,and where did daddy and his motorcycle land yep in the tree, he was always doing stuff like that. He was fun and mischievous, and very well loved and will be missed so very much, I love you daddy ,
