“ Jerry was a good hearted man with a great sense of humor. One year, Lew, Michelle, Kristen, and I met Jerry and Vel in Salt Lake City. We visited Joe and then drove to our home in Elko, NV. Kristen was in second grade and brought Jerry and Vel into the classroom for show-and-tell. Jerry did his magic thumb tricks and the kids were amazed. One little boy looked admiringly at Jerry and asked how he got his hair slicked back. Jerry looked seriously at the boy and said something close to this: "Well, now, I always carry a comb in my back pocket. I take it out of my pocket and then work my comb and my hand like this." He proceeded to demonstrate the process. It was priceless! The little boy looked at Jerry like he was a Greek God.

Jerry took a road trip (2005?) and spent a week with Kristen and me in Albuquerque. We had a great time. Jerry was a riot...I laughed so much! I had tickets to a performance of the Harlem Dance Company and was surprised that Jerry was willing to go. We were in the mezzanine, leg room was limited, and Jerry was having to practically fold himself up to fit in the seat. During one of the acts, Jerry looked over at me and asked (a little on the loud-side) "Are there only black people in Harlem?".

My heart goes out to Jerry's family and friends in Oklahoma and to his sister and brothers. Jerry was one of a kind and I'm thankful for the times I spent with him.

“ The first time I met Uncle Jerry he asked me if I'd like to hold on to his thumb... he had drawn a smiley face on it (which all of us who knew him would find this funny), I laughed and instantly adored him. The pictures I'm posting are from BJ's wedding! Jerry and I tore up the dance floor!

Jerry had a wonderful heart, was generous and always kind. Sending love to our family and friends. Uncle Jerry, you will be missed.

*Love,
Kristen*
