

Jerry Leon Wann

February 21, 1944 - December 6, 2022

Jerry L. Wann, 78, of Kinta died at his home on Tuesday, December 6, 2022. He was born February 21, 1944 at Kinta to Leon and Inez (Cox) Wann. He grew up at Kinta where he received his education. He continued his education at Eastern State College. He was married to Gloria Shelton and made their home together until her passing in 2008. They made their home in Durant for many years and he began a career with Amoco Oil Company that spanned some 20 years. He owned the Durant Bowling Center as well as the Twin Cinemas until 2010. He returned to Kinta and started raising cattle. He loved being on the farm, raising animals and working with his kids, grandkids and great grandkids. While living in Durant he was known for his huge Christmas decorations, much like his mother was known for at Kinta. He was a member of the Kinta First Christian Church.

He is survived by a daughter, Patricia Gaches of Kinta; four grandchildren, Jeremie Wann and wife Celia of Wilburton, Kelsie Thompson of Kinta, Dalton Hagedorn of Ardmore, Trever Wann and wife Jordan of Denison, TX; 10 great grandchildren, Lucy, Lizzie, Hunter, Jax, Everlee, Addison, Kylie, Daniel, Delilah, Kenny Jane; one niece, Christy Coplen and husband C.B. of Canadian; one nephew, Brian Wann of Fremont, CA. He is preceded in death by his parents, Leon and Inez Wann; wife, Gloria Wann; son, J.D.Wann; brother, Larry J. Wann; two grandchildren, Jeana and Kevin Wann.

Funeral services will be 2:00 P.M. Saturday, December 10, 2022 at the Kinta First Christian Church with Mr. John Calloway officiating. Pallbearers include

Mark King, Anthony Floyd, Hunter Wann, Cody Bowen, James Allen, Curtis Hope. Burial will follow at Quinton Cemetery under the direction of King & Shearwood Funeral Home of Stigler.
