

Jessie James Allen

February 18, 1942 - November 21, 2012

Reverend Jessie James "Timer" Allen, 70, of Stigler died Wednesday, November 21, 2012. He was born at Tucker Knob near Kinta on February 18, 1942 to Alton and Rosie Mozelle (Fowler) Allen. He grew up at Tucker Knob and Kinta where he was educated. He began a career in carpentry and home building. He was married to Nellie Rainbolt on April 5, 1986 and made their home together in Stigler. He loved the outdoors, especially hunting, fishing, and trapping. He also loved to travel. He will be missed by all who knew him. He was a member of the Antioch Pentecostal Church.

He is survived by his wife, Nellie Allen of the home; two daughters, Shawnell Allen of the home, Bonnie Walker of Tahlequah; three sons, Stephen Allen of Stigler, Don Harbaugh of Fort Smith, and Michael Harbaugh of Stigler; 8 grandchildren, Earl, Daniel, Micaela, Anthony, Casey, D.J., Victoria and Allison; three great grandchildren, Aiden, Zane, and Phillip; one brother, Dale Allen and wife Jessie of Bristow. He is preceded in death by his parents, Alton and Rosie Mozelle Allen; one sister, Mary Snow; one daughter, Julie Shrum; grandchildren, Tanya Caughran, Wraith Smith, and Brandon Caughran; one son in law, Allen Walker.

Funeral services will 11:00 A.M. Saturday, November 24, 2012 at the Antioch Pentecostal Church with Reverend Roy Campbell officiating. The Eulogist will be Pastor Larry Kerns. Pallbearers will be Earl Bell, Daniel Bell, Anthony Shrum, Keith Campbell, Roy Neal Campbell and Ron Covey. Burial will follow at Old Cache Cemetery under the direction of King & Shearwood Funeral Home of Stigler.

Cemetery Details

OLD CACHE CEMETERY ~ KEOTA

Tribute Wall

AS

“ Nellie and family so sorry to see that you have lost Jessie, My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

Angie Edwards Shaw - November 27, 2012 at 02:04 AM

AS

“ Angie Edwards Shaw lit a candle in memory of Jessie James Allen

Angie Edwards Shaw - November 27, 2012 at 02:03 AM