“ Jessie and I were pretty close when we were younger. I'm from April till December older than her. I remember when Uncke Red and Aunt Flossie moved to Pierce, OK. Jessie was a year behind me because of her late birthday. We wanted so badly to be in class together so we devised a plan that we would tell the teachers she was in the same grade as I was. We were so excited that we not only lived closer together but could be in classes at school together. We made up a really good story. Our plans were disrupted the 2nd day of school when the principle found out when her birthday was! She was a real hoot to be around! We had many great times as kids playing together. I am so sorry for your loss! May the Lord give you strength and grace thru this time of sorrow!

“ My favorite memory was when me and Carol would get to go to the city in the summer when her and Teddy lived on Melrose Lane. We would stay at pool all day and they would take us to Springlake it was an amusement park and when she would get in the spirit for every holiday and the singing and her harmonica playing at all the family gatherings. I love her so much she was my big sister
