“ Never forget going to his little second hand store in Lequire and him and Edith would be sitting in there and I would sit and visit and get a cold soda. I even remember the little pool hall, they we extra special people. Sending prayers to the entire family.

I knew Jim Bray to be friendly and helpful to people. I owned and operated grocery store at LeQuire and knew his sons who lived there. I'd met his wife Edith several times too. I still remember the day she passed away.
