“ Uncle Johnathan (Uncle Whistle), was such a sweet, kind man. I have many wonderful memories of him. I loved all his humorous stories about Grandma, Grandpa Turney & all his brothers & sisters. It was always fun to be around him. I'm proud to call him my Uncle, along with all of my other Uncle's & Aunt's that are already in heaven. He was the baby of the family and the last to go. I'm sure besides Jesus, they were all there, to meet him. Finally they are all together, celebrating.

❤️ Love U forever Uncle Whistle!

“ Love, prayers & sympathy to Nancy & family. We will always treasure our friendship and memories of visits with sweet John. Oh how he could tell a good story!!! Loved to listen to him tell the story of meeting that “black haired woman” - Nancy or “Doodle Bug” as he sometimes called her & other stories of his past. John was a true gentleman and had a life well lived & he was well loved!
