“ I first met Joe Deck 6 years ago and I loved him from that first time on. He was a kind and generous man who invited me into his home and made me feel welcomed and comfortable in new surroundings. He always embraced the individual and never judged them for their wrongs until he knew it was harmful to themselves or possibly others. He spoke softly with his words but they carried alot of meaning and wisdom that one could tell came from experience. Love you Joe Deck, I will always miss you my dear friend Ride high and free Joe!
