

Kathryn "KAY" E. Cox

June 18, 1925 - February 14, 2019

Kathryn "Kay" E. Cox, 93, of Kinta, Oklahoma, was born on June 18, 1925 in Bixby, Oklahoma, returned to her heavenly home on February 14, 2019. What beautiful timing for her to be called home, on the day most celebrate love, as her heart was so full of love. Kathryn can most simply be described as a blessing, making it her priority to bring joy to others. Her devotion to her family and Christ was a part of her core and she was often found to be witnessing by way of ministry to others, showing grace and kindness above all else. Kathryn prided herself on being very involved within the church community; this having been instilled in her since childhood. Kathryn touched many lives simply by her presence alone. Kathryn spent the majority of her life providing for her family as a homemaker in Kinta, Oklahoma.

Kathryn was born to the late Richard and Thelma Evans. Kathryn was preceded in death by her sister and brother-in-law, Naomi "Sue" and Howard Rankin, of Seminole, OK., a brother, Richard and sister-in-law, Violet Evans of Irvin, Texas; an infant brother, Eugene Evans; her son, Richard "Ricky" Cox of Kinta, OK.; and her beloved husband of 65 years, Austin Cox of Kinta, OK. Kathryn is survived by five children she loved dearly along with their spouses, Lavonne and husband, Denver Cogburn of Kinta, OK., Jana McElyea and husband Larry of Canadian, OK., Austin Cox and wife Donna of Holdenville, OK., Dan Cox and wife Billie of Muskogee, OK., and Bryan Cox and wife Michelle of Broken, OK. Kathryn is survived by fourteen grandchildren; sixteen great grandchildren, which were her pride and joy.

Funeral Services will be held 10:30 A.M. at Kinta First Baptist Church on Saturday, February 16, 2019 with Reverend Larry McElyea officiating. Pallbearers will be her beloved grandsons and family. Burial will follow in Quinton Cemetery under the direction of King & Shearwood Funeral Home of Stigler.
