

Kenneth Russell "Rusty" Lowe

September 14, 1959 - June 14, 2022

Kenneth Russell Lowe was born September 14th, 1959 at Muskogee OK, the son of Ken and Orela (Martin) Lowe and died Tuesday, June 14th, 2022.

Rusty was raised in the Keefeton Freewill Baptist Church where he sang with his family and made life-long friends. In his early years he spent a lot of time fishing and hunting with his grandpa and his cousin Kevin. Upon graduating Warner High school class of 1977, Rusty was most proud of being All-Conference Defensive End. Go #81!

After high school Rusty got married to Dana Green and was blessed with a son, twin daughters and they moved to Kinta. Rusty loved watching his kids in anything they did, but especially sports. He spent a lot of his time fishing and hunting with his best buddy Kensey. Most recently he has been enjoying watching his grandsons playing ball and hunting rattlesnakes.

Rusty was very proud of his Choctaw heritage. He loved to draw anything including Indian drawings, Looney Tunes, and even Holden Show Pigs design on his grandson's show box. Since a young boy Rusty has ridden motorcycles and that has never changed. Ride like the wind big brother!

Rusty is survived by a son, Joshua Lowe of Tulsa; a daughter, Lensey & husband Rodney Holden of Kinta; a sister, Vicky Lowe of Keefeton; grandsons, Hunter & Jace Holden of Kinta; nephews, Ahyoka (J.C.) Lowe & Chase Lowe; great niece, Eevee Rae Lowe; uncles, aunts and cousins.

Rusty is preceded in death by his parents Ken & Orela Lowe; daughter Kensey Lowe; grandparents Deward Sr. & Eula Martin, Norman Lowe &

Pocahontas (Pokey) Alford; uncles, aunts and cousins.

Graveside service will be at 10:00 a.m. Friday, June 17, 2022, with Reverend Cardell Coppin officiating. Pallbearers include family and friends.

Burial is under the direction of King & Shearwood Funeral Home.
