“ Papa, you are one of the greatest men I've ever known. I am so blessed to have had you for the wonderful 32 yrs. I was never too big for your lap, and I will miss kissing you on top of your head. You were the greatest papa a kid could ask for. I will miss you everyday, and I will always love you!

“ We met Kenneth and Ruth at Crossroads Cathedral, Oklahoma City, OK in 1985 when we moved from Houston. We have had a friendship since that time. Kenneth introduced us to his Son-in-law Eddie Crase and wife Diana when we asked if he knew of a tax man. As usual, Kenneth had an answer on the tip of his tongue and recommended his Son-in-law who has been our tax man ever since. Also, many people may not know that Kenneth could repair a sewing machine of any kind. He repaired mine several times. We will miss him and his many talents. We also join with our extended family in the celebration that is going on in Heaven. Kenneth was a devoted Christian man who loved to talk about the Lord and share his experiences with anyone who would listen.

We will miss our beloved friend and we continue to hold the family up in our prayers. We love you all.

“ So sorry for the loss of this amazing man. Ken is an example of the unconditional love and how to share it with everyone that came in contact with him. Will always remember the mischievous grin.

“ KENNETH was a dedicated representative of United Benefits from the mid 1980s to his retirement due to his vision difficulties in the mid 2000s. Always ready to take on the toughest territory and work the hardest to make it successful. Ken cared for his policyholders and was extremely loyal to united. I will the occasional visits we continued to have on the phone. Ken was only an agent, he was a good friend.
