“ Buzzy let me ride with him and a group of guys who worked in Ft Smith. He charged 50 cents a day and he always made sure I had a front seat and that the guys language was clean. I worked at Stuart Electric and had to hang out at the bus station in downtown Ft Smith til they opened as the other riders started work at 7. Those sandwiches and donuts in those machines sure looked good but I had to save my money for my ride. Buzzy always made sure I got home okay as I walked and met him at Cecil's store every morning. I was 15. Thanks Buzzy for helping me.
