

Linda Kay Cychosz

February 15, 1952 - August 8, 2022

Linda Kay Cychosz, 70, of Quinton, passed away at her home Monday, August 8, 2022. She was born February 15, 1952 in Brooken, Oklahoma to William E. "Benny" and Jackie (Neal) Fitzer.

Linda was full of life. She had a infectious, upbeat personality that everyone loved being around. People sought her out when they wanted to laugh, hear outrageous comments, and enjoy life.

Linda loved spending her days with Pat, her kids and grandkids, her brother and his family, going to the Hughes Lake House, listening to Elvis, fishing, watching TV, antiquing, eating good meals (mainly desserts) and playing the slots.

Linda was beautiful inside and out. She enjoyed every day until her last. Linda is survived by her loving husband of 10 years, Pat Cychosz of the home; a son, Brad Montgomery & wife Kari of McNally Flats, Oklahoma; 2 grandson's, Brett Montgomery & wife Mackenzie of McAlester & Trent Montgomery of McNally Flats, Oklahoma; a great grandson, Dylon Montgomery of McAlester; a brother, Bill "Punk" Fitzer & wife Mary of Brooken; a niece, Shana Grubis & husband Joe of Brooken.

Linda is preceded in death by her parents, Benny & Jackie Fitzer; a nephew, Brian Fitzer.

Memorial Service will be 10:00 Saturday, August 13, 2022 in Brooken Cemetery with Reverend Bill Fitzer officiating. Cremation arrangements were made under the direction of King & Shearwood Funeral Home of Stigler.

“ Linda was my best friend. She was the most awesome person to be around. She really did turn a frown upside down. She cherished those grandkids and talked about them always. Patrick was her main squeeze and loved him with all she had. Linda you will be missed dearly RIP 💔
