She loved to cook and was an amazing cook. She always cooked enough food at Holiday's to feed the whole town, she was also willing to sew up anything for anyone She would welcome anyone in, which is a trait she got from her mom. Her and Doy took over her parents cafe after their passing and operated it with their daughter for many years. She made burgers just as good as her mom and served lots of food out of Doy's gardens. Along side her daughter Donna she ran a daycare in Quinton for several years and it was a highlight of her life. She was a very loving wife, mama, nannie, aunt, and friend. She was a lifelong member of Kinta First Baptist Church and loved her church family. She loved all music, but Elvis was her favorite! She loved working in her beautiful flower gardens and painting rocks She loved sitting on the porch with her friends and neighbors visiting. She had several special friends; Jimmie Markham, Kay Farriell, Charolette Smith, and Barbara Surber. She loved her daughters and her grandchildren were the high light of her life. She loved Kinta Eagles Basketball games and watching the grands play. She had a great love for her OKC Thunder Team, you would have thought she was their coach.
