“ I remember Lonnie always picking and pestering me as I was growing up. He always picked at our dogs and thought it was funny to get them to try to bite him and he did it one time to a little Chihuawennie dog we had and he waited til Lonnie went to sit down and bite him on his butt and peed on his leg.
Lonnie just took it all in stride and laughed and said don't get onto to him it was my fault for picking on him. Always thought the world of him he was a good guy. He will be missed greatly. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends.
