

Lyndell Deon McKibben

December 22, 1970 - July 13, 2024

Lyndell Deon McKibben, 53, passed away on Saturday, July 13, 2024. Lyndell was born on December 22, 1970 to Eulis and Virginia Helen (Coffman) McKibben. Lyndell grew up on Beaver Mt. and according to his family, he was a child with endless curiosity, lots of energy, and a love for the outdoors. He learned how to hunt and fish, which included noodling.

Lyndell married Dania DuVall and began his career in Road Construction. He became an expert in operating a variety of specialized machinery.

Lyndell, who was also known as “Skinner” loved music especially the Blues, and enjoyed playing the guitar and drums. He was a member of the Choctaw tribe and was proud of his heritage. He especially enjoyed searching for arrowheads.

Lyndell had an enormous sense of humor, and always filled the room with laughter and joy. He leaves behind his children; Andy DuVall & wife Alyssa, Kendell McKibben & fiancé Magen Kegley, Emalee Franklin, Ethan Franklin, Kylie McKibben, Dannilyn McKibben, and Jase McKibben; 2 grandchildren; Andi DuVall and Myles McKibben; his mother, Virginia Helen McKibben; his sisters; Pamela Wood & husband Doyle, Karen Mullins & husband Tommy; his brothers;

Lyle McKibben, Colin McKibben & wife Tammy, Randall McKibben & wife

Brandi.

He also leaves behind Thomacina Stoneburner, grandmother of Emalee, Ethan, Kylie, Dannilyn, and Jase. He was preceded in death by his father, Eulis McKibben.
