“ I grew up next-door to Eulis and Margaret. They were very good neighbors and friends. We have spent many evenings in the cellar laughing and telling stories as the storms passed. My Grandson always wanted to go over there because Margaret would have a cookie for him. I would bring her grapefruit and oranges when in season and she really enjoyed them. She was always happy, laughing and smiling. I have missed her the last several years. But she has been in my heart and will always be in my heart . Yours truly, EDIE JONES.
