“Marvin Smith was a good man. He was fun .when I was a teenager and to young to drive he would take me and his step daughter flip u's and driving up and down Muskogee's strip and then to the old Walmart parking lot to hang out almost every Friday night. We threw eggs at him once while he was on his tractor and ran when he caught us he smeared us with peanut butter and locked us out of the house . He was a good man to me from the day I met him as a kid and I remained his freind my entire life . I think of him often and am so happy I knew him. I love you Marcie Baby love Amy Guerra Metz
