“ My sincere condolences to all of Melissa's family- especially her adoring baby girl. I've known Melissa well over 25 years- just reuniting these last few months over conversations of life, struggles, & accomplishments..... one of her biggest accomplishments was being a survivor. I am at loss for words of sorrow but rather offer words of strength and hope to all those involved or related to Melissa.... remember her laugh, her funny wit, & her genuine honesty- She will be missed , no doubt, but part of her will forever live on in the hearts of those she touched. To her baby girl- know you were loved with every ounce of your mommas strength and that part of her will always be with you. Love to you all- Jules
