

Milton Ray Hickman

July 19, 1948 - March 30, 2018

Mr. Milton Ray Hickman, 69, of Keota died Friday, March 30, 2018 at his home.

Milton was born on July 19, 1948 to Leroy and Donna (Kihn) Hickman at Kansas City, Missouri. He married Thelma Owens on November 14, 1980 and made their home together in Keota.

Milton was a retired welder and a member of The Well. He loved and served God and quoted Scriptures continually. He wouldn't listen to any negative confessions from anyone. He told people about God, some wanted to hear and others didn't, but that never stopped him. He never met a stranger. He loved to cut-up and tease people. He loved his children but always tried to be a Dad, even when the job was hard.

Milton is survived by his wife of 41 years, Thelma Hickman of the home; his sons, Anthony Ray Hickman, Leroy and Tonya Hickman of Poteau, and Randall and Kimberly Hickman of Keota; his stepchildren, Joyce Jenice Coyle of McAlester, James David Byram of Ft. Smith; 19 grandchildren; his sister, Cherryle Rickey of Claycomo, Missouri.

Milton is preceded in death by his parents, Leroy and Donna Hickman; a brother, Lowell Hickman; a daughter, Joycelyn Hickman.

Funeral Services will be held 11:00 A.M. Tuesday, April 3, 2018 at The Well with Pastor Daniel Smith officiating. Honorary Pallbearers include Justin Hickman, Jarod Hickman, Jason Hickman.
