

Noel Dale Lively

September 23, 1926 - February 19, 2013

Mr. Noel Dale Lively, 86, of Stigler died Tuesday, February 19, 2013 at his home following a courageous fight with cancer. He was born on September 23, 1926 in Okemah, Oklahoma to Shelton and Grace Lively (McClannahan). Dale operated and maintained the Last Splash Sawmill. As a prominent member of "Who's Who of the American West" he was a man with character who would captivate audiences with his homespun tales of his many life lessons. He was loved and cherished by many and a true touchstone for his children. Not one for pomp or circumstance, Dale has requested to be cremated. A celebration of his life as an annual event will commence in June. Please contact the family for further details.
