“ I Will always remember hanging out with Norma, and the family on the mountain, basketball, trampoline, THE CREEK!! After picking blackberries all morning waiting on that cobbler and ice cream. In a time of my life where I was lost.. and hurting. They helped nurture me from foster care life to a real family!! Always remember her faith, always remember her values. I know even when I went down my dark road, addiction, alcohol... the thought of blackberry cobbler would give me a little Joy. I know part of who I am today is a result of prayer, Norma was a prayer warrior. Today I'm a Evangelist, Sr Pastor, National Chaplain for a worldwide motorcycle ministry. I believe it was the love, THIS WONDERFUL WOMEN SHOWED, THE PRAYERS THIS WONDERFUL WOMEN PRAYED!! LOVE YA AUNT NORMA

“ A while back I sat by her in church and she told me a story of something that had happened after Larry went home and she moved into their new home. She said she was just saying out loud “Larry you should see our new home” she then said she heard these words “mom you should see mine.” I guess she is seeing that right now. I love having that thought. I will miss you sweet Norma.
