“ We were so blessed to have the presence of Sis Stephens in our church. She always expressed how she loved the truth. She was a true example of faith unwavering. She stood in the gap from many. A Golden heart and she will truly truly be missed.

“ I remember being a young girl and visiting with my Mother and sometimes my Uncle Billy. Pat was always so kind and every conversation the adults had was centered around the Lord. Pat was so beautiful in and out and she made the most delicious cakes. I love you Mrs. Pat. Fly high with Jesus and Mr. Jess. You will be missed very much.
