“ Some of my best childhood memories were spending time at Aunt Rachel's house. I loved being there she was so kind and loving and always welcomed me there. She was a wonderful cook and had a special love for her family. I will miss you Aunt Rachel and I love you. What a wonderful life and memories to leave your family with.

“ We were not around for many years, but always enjoyed seeing Rachel and the kids when here on vacations. Always had a big dinner for us, with lots of good food, and conversation, and a lot of laughing.....since moving back around closer, we have enjoyed being able to visit more, laugh more, and certainly enjoyed the Sunshine Pineapple Cake and Mincemeat Pie. We will truly miss her....Our hearts and prayers go out to the "kids" and their families... Arnold and Dawn
