“ My deepest sympathy to all family members. It was a shock to me to hear that Uncle Ralph had passed as it was not that long ago that my parents saw him when Aunt Doris passed and appeared to be in good health. I so much want to be there on Monday but unable to attend but know my love and prayers will fill my heart that day. Uncle Ralph was a caring man with a big heart of love to give foster kids a place to call home. God knew what he was doing when he paired him with Shirley to make their home special. Now it is his turn to go to "God's Home" where he will be surrounded by all the Love from those who have already gone. God will never deny his love and always forgive those who believe in Him. At the end of the day I forgive all and love all no matter how far in distance or relationship I have with my family. I wait my turn to be reunited with the Gables/Fishers as a family like when I was a kid so many years ago.

*God Bless You All,
Cathey (Fisher) Stidham*
