“ My Uncle Ronnie loved the Lord and didn't mind letting everyone know. I remember when he and my Aunt Fran were married at our house in Whitefield. I had a Casper the friendly ghost Halloween mask and my new cousin Kevin came running into the middle of the wedding with the mask saying Boo! They both just laughed and went on with the wedding. I loved my Uncle very much and he always had a huge hug for me every time I saw him.

“ Ron was a very good brother-in-law. Seems like he was always laughing when we had family gatherings. He was a happy man.
