“ I first met Ron Scroggins when we were on the same team playing sand-lot football on a Sunday afternoon around 1972.. The quarterback told us to go down and cut to the middle for a pass. We followed his orders went down about 20 yards running wide open and cut to the middle both looking to catch the football. We collided and cracking our heads together and almost knocked each other out cold. We helped each other up and had a good laugh together because neither one of us caught the ball!

Ron Scroggins was a good guy! I have always really liked Ron Scroggins!
