“ She was one of the first people that I had met in Oklahoma. We were waitresses at the Westside restaurant together. She introduced Roper jeans to me lol. I always admired her spunk and wished I could be more like her. I was lucky enough to live a couple doors down from her the last 15 years. She will be missed. We all love her....

“ Ruth was a true original, she had a country soul and she had grit to go with it, a rare combination these days.. If you ever heard her sing you were connected to the song immediately. It always made me smile, always. Rest in peace Ruth, never to be forgotten. Sing some country with the choir up there and tell my granny I said hello.
