

Timothy Clay Chapman Jr.

January 16, 1951 - December 18, 2012

Timothy Clay Chapman Jr., known by many as “Speed”, 61 died Tuesday, December 18, 2012 at his home in Stigler. A native of Oden, Arkansas he was born January 16, 1951 to Timothy C. Chapman Sr. and Luella (Thompson) Chapman. He grew up at Webbers Falls and Porum where he graduated with the class of 1969. He earned a degree in Mechanics from Okmulgee Tech. He was a mechanic for ExxonMobil for 20 years, where he worked so hard to provide for his family. He never missed a day of work until 2005 when his health took a sharp decline and he was forced to take early retirement. He enjoyed hunting, riding his Harley with the love of his life, Elaine. He also enjoyed Nascar, OU Football and he loved his dog, Elliott. He loved to coach little league baseball and he tried to attend every ballgame he could for the kids, grandkids and his nieces and nephews.

He was a beloved husband, father, papa, brother, uncle and friend. You always knew when he was around because of his enormous laugh. He could light up any room with his smile and he will be remembered as always having a smile on his face. He smiled the most when he got to see his grandchildren. He was a special man and he will be missed by all who knew him.

He is survived by his wife Rachel Elaine Chapman of the home; three daughters, Crystal Bliss and husband James of Warner, Lindsey Hylton and husband Joshua of Mustang, Natalie Chapman of Stigler; one son, Timothy Clay Chapman (Trey) III and wife Ashley of Stigler; two step sons, Andrew Monks and wife Candice of Stigler, Matthew Monks and wife Shelby of “ Tomorrow is technically our last "first holiday" without you. People say that the first year is the hardest, but I disagree. The more time that passes, the more it hurts. I can't imagine this pain ever going away. My heart literally aches for you. I am just so incredibly sad. Just like people say that you never know what real love is until you have kids, well I never knew what it meant to miss someone until you died. It's horrible. I love you and miss you everyday.

“ I was shocked tonight when I found out, about Tim's passing. He was a fine man and has been thought of many times throughout the years. Our sincerest condolences to each of you. Elaine, I'm so glad that you and Tim came to visit us when you did. I'm sorry I truly am at a loss for words.....I don't think there are words that can help. Please know that you all will be in our prayers. ~~Denton and Pam Edwards
