“ Tommy and Pie were friends from childhood until Pie’s death! If Pie was going somewhere by himself he would call Tom and tell him to get ready and he would be by to pick him up. Tom would be ready and they would take off and be gone all day. We would get together at Pie’s on Saturday nights and play pitch and we always included Tom. He was just part of the family! Thanks for being such a good friend and the memories! Go o rest high on that mountain!
