“ When Toker was a very little guy , he was about three, Trina brought him and his brother by the house, my husband Joe was working on our car changing the oil. Tyler went out and crawled under the car with him and asked if he could help. His mom was telling him to not get dirty, Tyler told his mom, chill. I laughed so hard. We will miss this young man.

“ I remember the night you were born. I was on my way to grannies to pick up Tyson and bring him home with me and it was storming real bad and the power lines and poles between stigler and lequire was on the ground NO POWER anywhere. My most recent memory is your graduation. You were so proud we came. Sorry things ended so soon. Love and miss you more than you know. Love you Tyler!!
