

Wanda Jean Bond

August 6, 1939 - July 24, 2020

Wanda Jean Bond, 80, of Stigler, passed away Friday, July 24, 2020 in Mercy Hospital in Ft. Smith, Arkansas. She was born August 6, 1939 in Stigler, Oklahoma to Betty Agnes Ritch Harrell & Earl Ritch.

Wanda met a young man that stole her heart while they were attending Perry School. They met each other by Arley driving his brother's hot rod, a 1950, 4 door coupe, and running through a mud hole and threw mud all over her new coat. His brother Lenard set them up on a date. But just look what Happened! Marriage! Arley & Wanda were married on October 25, 1956.

Wanda & Arley have always been in some type of business. Wanda had a great love for their B & B Trading Post & Bait Shop on 2nd St. that was started in 1966 in Stigler. The fishermen would drive miles to buy her tackle & minnows because they said, "Her bait would live longer than anyone's."

Wanda loved the Lord very much. She belonged to the Pentecostal Holiness Church which she helped build the new church in 1961. Years later it had the name changed to the River of Life Church. Wanda took great pride in her church and she could always find a job that needed to be done.

While battling cancer the last 2 years she never gave up and still never met a stranger. Helping people was her passion

Wanda loved her family and adored her grandchildren.
